July 2014

I remember your eyes from the 12th of July...

BLACK 47

Hi:

Thank you all so much for coming to see us recently. Many of the upcoming shows will be our last in your area before our final gig on Nov. 15th. We're looking forward to saying hello/goodbye and thanking you for your friendship and support over the years. New shows are being added all the time, so check in on www.black47.com Tour If you're missing a CD or t-shirt then visit SHOP at the same site.

To get advance notice on gigs and general news of the band - Black 47 Facebook page.

New shows added in the last days:

July 25, The Levitt Pavilion, Westport, CT (Free)

Aug 9, The Brew House, Pearl River, NY

Oct 19, Infinity Hall, Hartford, CT

Take care of yourselves and see you Thursday night on our Rocks Off Cruise in NY Harbor

THE LAST ROCKS OFF CRUISE

On Thursday, July 10, under an almost full moon, Black 47 will take a last cruise on the good ship, The Jewel, around New York Harbor. Hear James Connolly beneath the Statue of Liberty, jig with Bridie and the baby under the Brooklyn Bridge, kiss the Culchie Prince, or just enjoy a cool night out.

Join us!

BLACK 47 BLOG

We're all to blame for the neglect and deprivation uncovered in St. Mary's Mother and Baby Home run by the Bon Secours sisters in Tuam. All of us, that is, of a certain age who grew up in Ireland. We didn't know the details but we lived in a society where such things were possible. That's what happens when you give up your intellectual or spiritual freedom to an ideology, a dictatorship or a religion.

Is this another attack on Catholicism? Far from it...
