Bergen Performing Arts Center located at 30 North Van Brunt Street in Englewood, New Jersey presents Black 47 with special guest The Bill Weevils Saturday, September 20th 2014 at 8PM. Be sure to reserve tickets to see this fantastic show at www.ticketmaster.com or Box Office at 201.227.1030.

They played more gigs at Shea Stadium than The Beatles, shut down the city of Hoboken, appeared multiple times on Leno, Letterman & O'Brien, starred in a movie with their fans Matt Dillon and Danny Glover, helped spring the Guilford Four and the Birmingham Six from British prisons, saved an Irish immigrant church from the wrecking ball.

Led by Irish author, playwright, and SiriusXM radio host, Larry Kirwan, Black 47 play a uniquely Irish form of rock 'n' roll that touches on many social and political issues, and yet is never less than entertaining and riveting. Black 47 earned their chops playing four sets a night in New York pubs. They gained national attention for their first indie record before The Cars' Ric Ocasek produced their second album, Fire Of Freedom which brought them mainstream attention with MTV favorites, Funky Ceili and Maria's Wedding.

The Bill Weevils are a folk-rock group sporting members Bill Bloom on guitar, banjo and vocals, Matt Hauser on drums, "The Grape" Minkoff on percussion, Boog Agte on bass, Dave Abrams on guitar, and "Michael Copeland on vocals.
